

B.Sc.(N) [Post Basic (2nd Year)]

BF/2013/07

Community Health Nursing

[New Scheme-w.e.f. 2007 admission]

M.M. : 75

Time : 3 Hours.

Note: Attempt all questions.

1. (a) Define epidemiology. [2]
- (b) Explain uses of epidemiology in community health nursing. [5]
- (c) Explain descriptive epidemiology and its role in dealing with community health problems by giving examples from your field experience. [8]

OR

2. (a) Discuss the strategies of National Rural Health Mission. [7]
- (b) Describe the role of Community Health Nurse in implementation of Janani Shishu Suraksha Karyakram (JSSK). [8]
3. (a) Family is considered as a unit of service – discuss. [5]
- (b) Discuss the determinants of family health. [5]
- (c) Describe the role of community health nurse in identification and management of high risk families. [5]
4. (a) Define Communication and discuss its key elements. [5]
- (b) Discuss principles you will keep in mind while communicating health messages to school children on food hygiene. [5]
5. (a) Discuss the occupation hazards among industrial workers. [5]
- (b) Describe the role of community health nurse in relation to prevention of occupational hazards in a cement factory. [5]

6. Write Short Notes on any FIVE of the following: [5x5=25]
  - (a) Discuss the health indicators which reflect the health status of mother and children in a community.
  - (b) Explain importance of community involvement in meeting health needs of community.
  - (c) Difference between census and health survey.
  - (d) Fourth category of DOTS under Revised National Tuberculosis Control Programme.
  - (e) Standing instructions.
  - (f) Cold chain and its role in intensified Pulse Polio Immunisation programme.
  - (g) PPTCT (Prevention of Parents to Child Transmission) of HIV.