

B.Sc.(N) [Post Basic (2nd Year)]

Community Health Nursing

[New Scheme-w.e.f. 2007 admission]

M.M.: 75		75	Time: 3 Hou	Time: 3 Hours.
	Note:	Attemp	ot all questions.
	1.	(a) (b) (c)	Define epidemiology. Explain uses of epidemiology in community health nursing. Explain descriptive epidemiology and its role in dealing with community health problems by giving examples from your field experience.	[2] [5]
			OR
	2.	(a)	Discuss the strategies of National Rural Health Mission.	[7]
		(b)	Describe the role of Community Health Nurse in implementation of Janan Shishu Suraksha Karyakram (JSSK).	i [8]
	3.	(a) (b) (c)	Family is considered as a unit of service – discuss. Discuss the determinants of family health. Describe the role of community health nurse in identification and management of high risk families.	[5] [5]
	4.	(a)	Define Communication and discuss its key elements.	[5]
		(b)	Discuss principles you will keep in mind while communicating health messages to school children on food hygiene.	[5]
	5.	(a) (b)	Discuss the occupation hazards among industrial workers. Describe the role of community health nurse in relation to prevention of occupational hazards in a cement factory.	[5]
	6.	Write	Short Notes on any FIVE of the following: [5x5=	25]
		(a)	Discuss the health indicators which reflect the health status of mother children in a community.	and
		(b)	Explain importance of community involvement in meeting health needs community.	s of
		(c)	Difference between census and health survey.
		(d)	Fourth category of DOTS under Revised National Tuberculosis Con Programme.	trol
		(e)	Standing instructions.
		(f)	Cold chain and its role in intensified Pulse Polio Immunisation programme	e.
		(g)	PPTCT (Prevention of Parents to Child Transmission) of HIV.		